

The Wild Trout VIII symposium was very successful. The conference had 210 pre-registrants from across the United States, Canada, Australia, and England. During the conference, 36 papers were presented; lively panel sessions followed some of the presentations. Many of the attendees and members of the original founding committee commented that this was the best meeting in the 30-year history!

Steve Moore,
Symposium Chairman

Working Together to Ensure the Future of Wild Trout